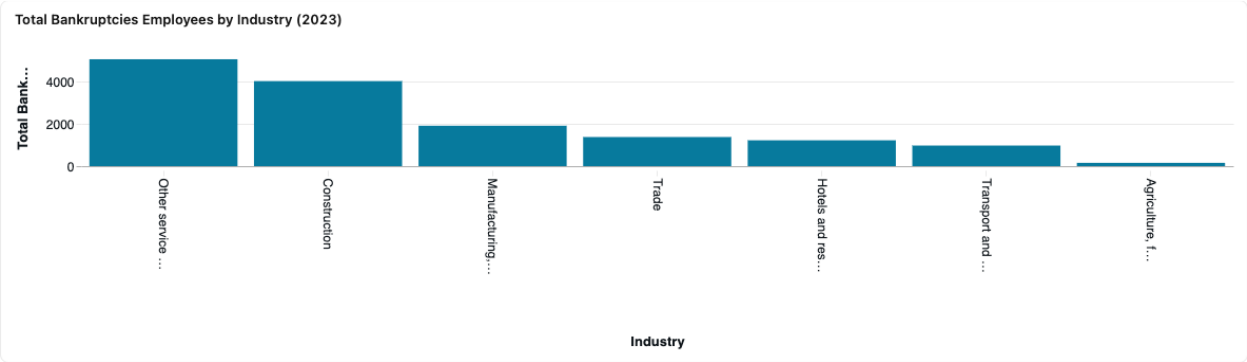
Industry Labor Impact Bankruptcies Dashboard

Comprehensive analysis of bankruptcy labor impact across industries, time periods, and municipalities.

1. Industry Labor Impact Overview

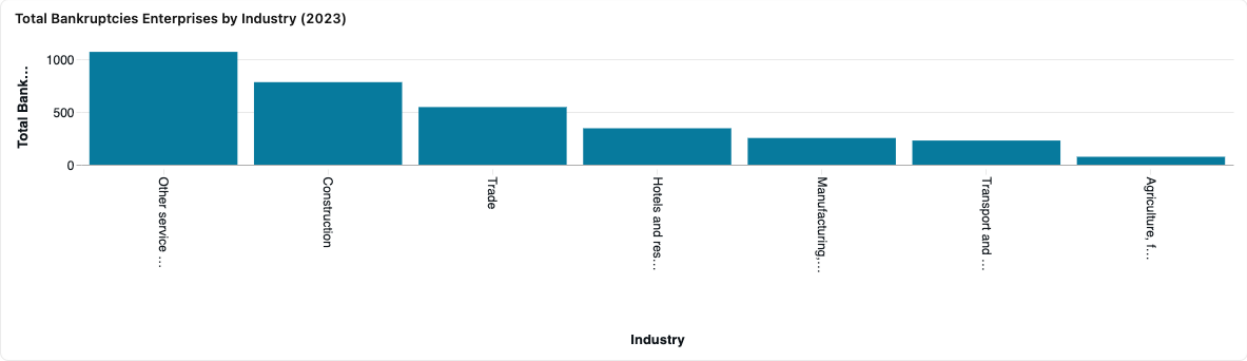
Total Bankruptcies Employees by Industry (2023)

Other service activities (5,051) and Construction (4,018) account for 62% of all affected employees in 2023.



Total Bankruptcies Enterprises by Industry (2023)

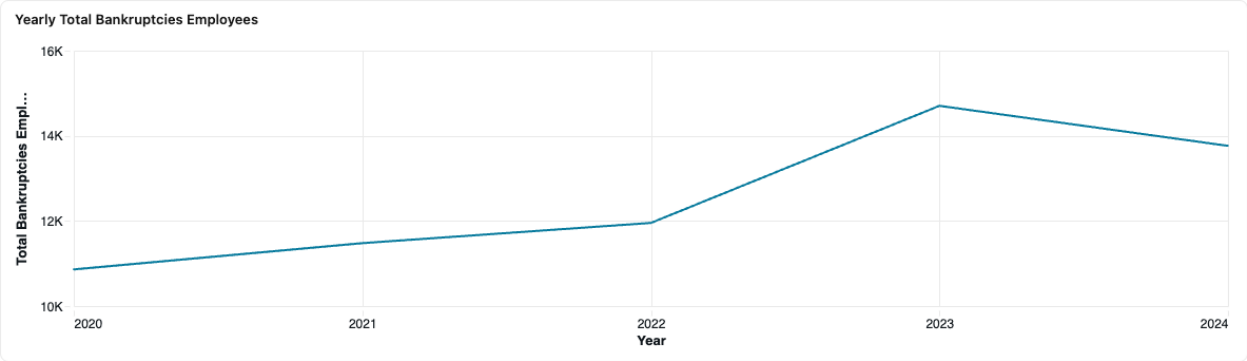
Other service activities (1,069) and Construction (782) also lead in enterprise bankruptcies, representing 56% of all cases.



2. National Trend

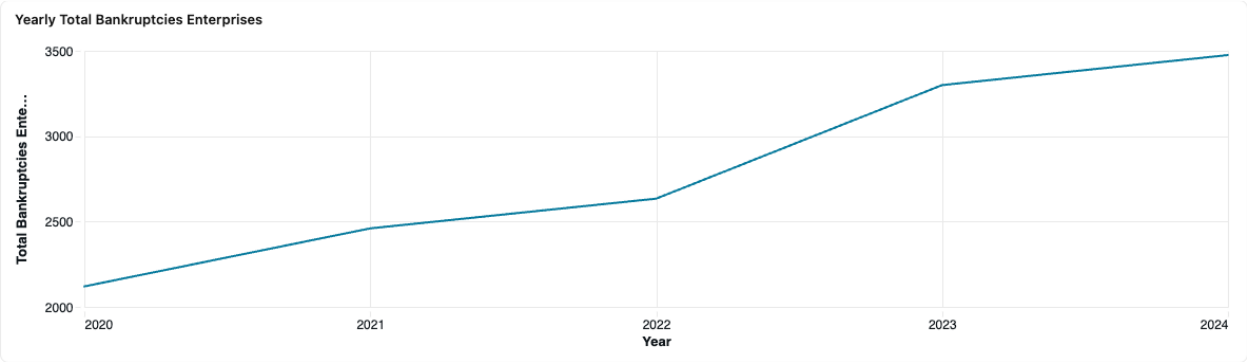
Yearly Total Bankruptcies Employees

Employee impact peaked at 14,704 in 2023, then declined to 13,764 in 2024.



Yearly Total Bankruptcies Enterprises

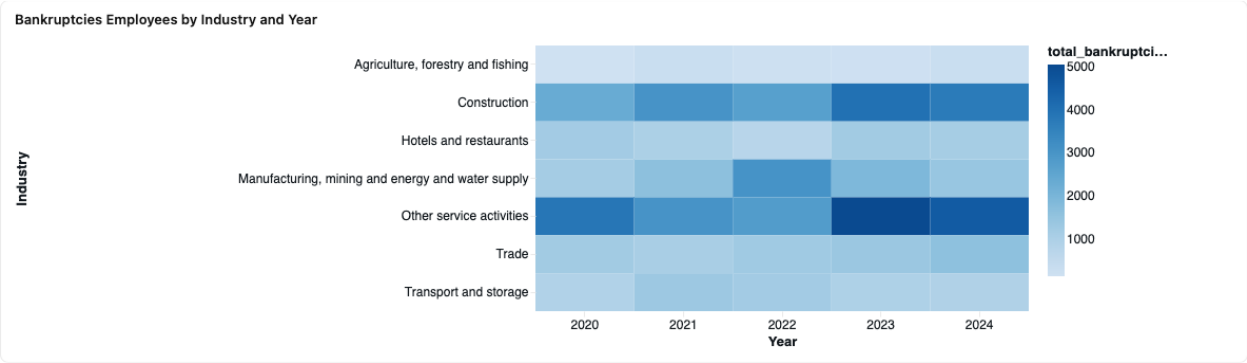
Enterprise bankruptcies show consistent growth from 2,120 (2020) to 3,475 (2024).



3. Industry Patterns Over Time

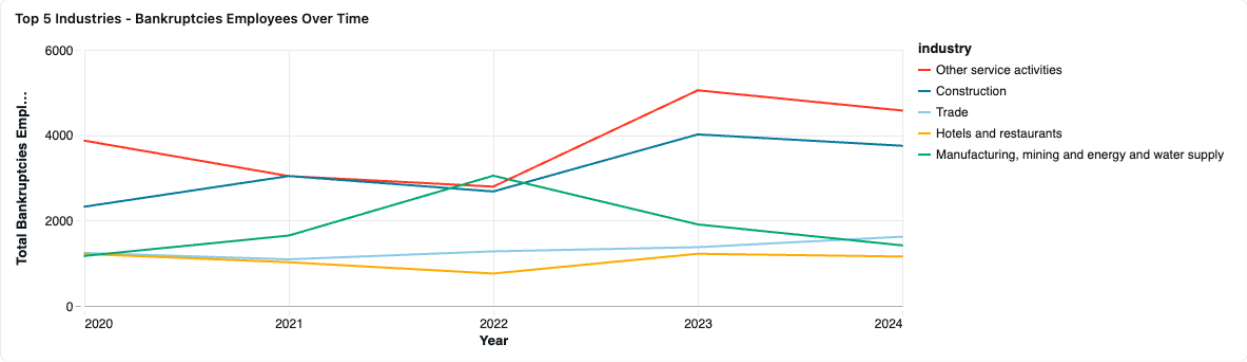
Bankruptcies Employees by Industry and Year

The heatmap shows 2023 had the highest intensity for Other service activities (5,051) and Construction (4,018). Manufacturing peaked in 2022 at 3,050.



Top 5 Industries - Bankruptcies Employees Over Time

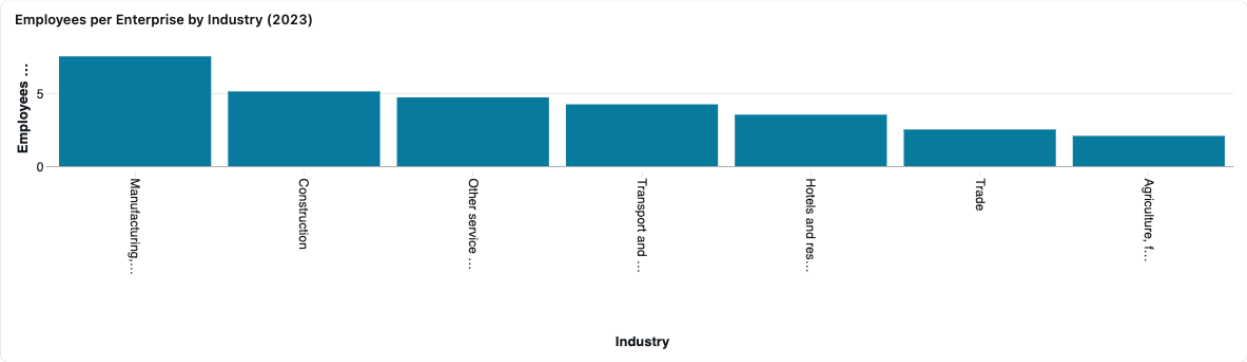
Other service activities and Construction dominate throughout the period. All five industries show increases in 2023.



4. Impact per Bankruptcy

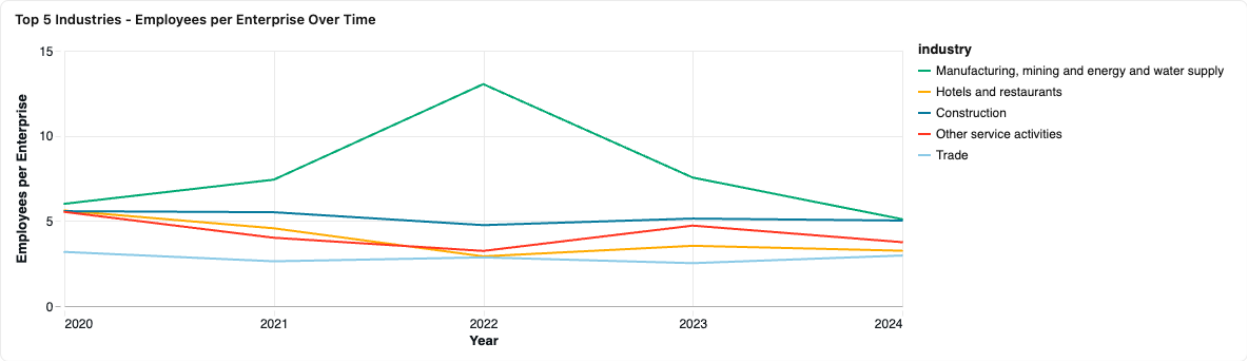
Employees per Enterprise by Industry (2023)

Manufacturing (7.5), Construction (5.1), and Other service activities (4.7) have the highest ratios. Calculated as sum(bankruptcies_employees) / sum(bankruptcies_enterprises).



Top 5 Industries - Employees per Enterprise Over Time

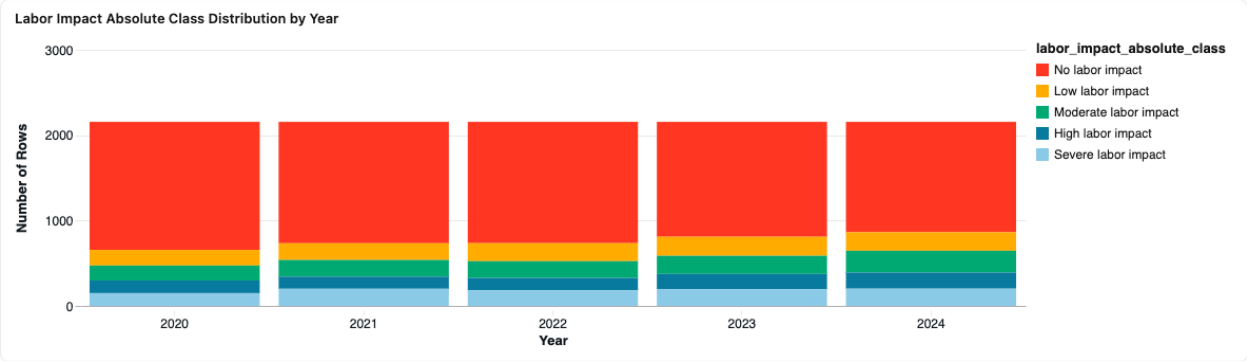
Manufacturing shows volatility, peaking at 13.0 in 2022. Other industries maintain more stable ratios.



5. Labor Impact Classification

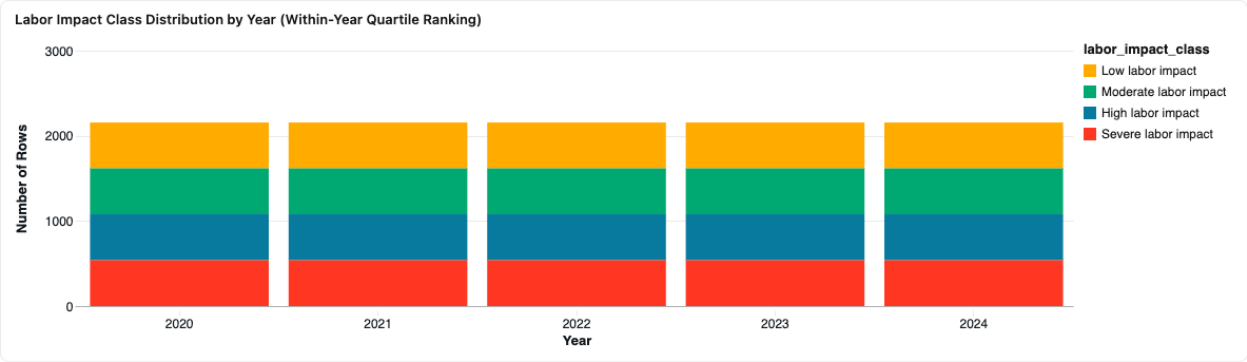
Labor Impact Absolute Class Distribution by Year

Trend-safe classification based on fixed dataset-wide quartile bands. "No labor impact" (bankruptcies_employees = 0) declined from 1,500 rows (69%) in 2020 to 1,293 rows (60%) in 2024. Severe labor impact cases: 150 (2020) to 202 (2024).



Labor Impact Class Distribution by Year (Within-Year Quartile Ranking)

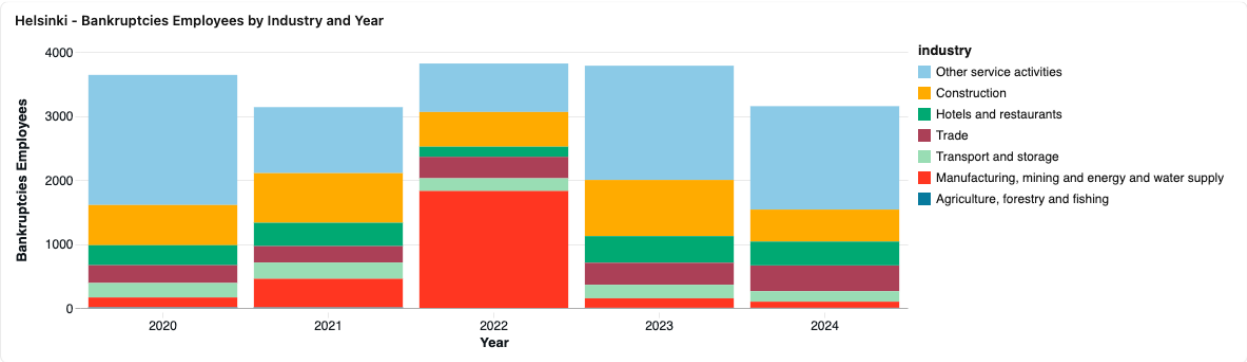
Relative within-year quartile ranking - not suitable for cross-year trend interpretation. Each class contains exactly 539 rows (25%) per year by design.



6. Municipality Deep Dive

Helsinki - Bankruptcies Employees by Industry and Year

Other service activities dominates Helsinki's bankruptcy impact, with 1,785 affected employees in 2023. Manufacturing showed 1,830 in 2022.



Municipality-Industry Combinations with Severe Labor Impact (2023)

Top 30 municipality-industry combinations classified as "Severe labor impact" in 2023. Helsinki dominates with Other service activities (1,785) and Construction (877).

	municipality	industry	bankruptcies_employees
1	Helsinki	Other service activities	1785
2	Helsinki	Construction	877
3	Vantaa	Other service activities	430
4	Helsinki	Hotels and restaurants	416
5	Espoo	Other service activities	408
6	Helsinki	Trade	343
7	Vantaa	Construction	339
8	Tampere	Other service activities	229
9	Pyhäntä	Manufacturing, mining and energy and water supply	225
10	Helsinki	Transport and storage	212
11	Naantali	Other service activities	194

Summary

• Other service activities and Construction consistently account for over 60% of bankruptcy labor impact
• 2023 showed peak employee impact (14,704), while enterprise bankruptcies continued rising through 2024 (3,475)
• Manufacturing has the highest employees per enterprise ratio (7.5 in 2023) with notable volatility
• Helsinki accounts for the largest concentration of severe labor impact cases
• Labor impact absolute class shows declining "No labor impact" cases from 69% to 60% of rows